CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.

Condensed Report of the Doings in Senate and House.

SERVICE DISCUSSED.

Appropriation Bills Before the House Adjournment in Sympathy with President McKinley-Pelagic Sealing by Americans Prohibited.

Wednesday, Dec. 15.

The legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill was discussed in the house, but only one amendment of importance was adopted. It reduced the clerical force at the pension office ninety-five, involving a reduction in salaries of $115,000. In the senate the bill providing for the prohibition of pelagic sealing by Americans was passed. The session closed with a spirited civil service debate.

Thursday, Dec. 16. The house passed the bill appropriating $175,000 for relief of people who are in Yukon River country, and also bill passed by the senate to prohibit pelagic sealing by American citizens.

The resolution directing the secretary of war to send supplies to American and other sufferers in Klondike region passed in the senate. The house resolution providing for recess of congress from Dec. 18, 1897, to Jan. 5, 1898, was adopted.

Friday, Dec. 17. Minor amendments to the legislative. executive and judicial appropriation bill were adopted in the house. The paragraph relating to the civil service goes over until after the holidays. The house refused to accept the senate amendment to the bill for the relief of the miners in the Upper Yukon, and II was sent to conference. Reduction of tax upon alcohol used in the arts was discussed in the senate. It showed wide divergence of opinion. One hundred and thirtyeight private pension bills were pasaed. Resolutions on the death of William Steele Holman, late representa tive from Indiana, occupied the remainder of the day.

SPECIAL SESSION IN ILLINOIS. Legislators Meet to Discuss Six Import ant Subjects. In the house Dec. 15 a motion was passed to reconsider the vote by which the inheritance tax appropriation bill failed to pass, and it was made a special order for next Wednesday. A bill was introduced to abolish the state board of equalization and provide for the election of a board of tax commissioners. A bill to provide for the assessment of grain in elevators was introduced. Governor Tanner transmitted to the senate the appointments which he made since the regular session adjourned. The senate went into executive session and confirmed all the appointments. In the senate Dec. 16 the house bill appropriating $60,000 to the soldiers and sailors' home at Quincy was referred to the committee on appropriations, which later ordered it favorably reported. The house transacted no business.

An Old Bequest.

Under an old bequest, half a guinea is left for the annual sermon at Terrington, in Norfolk, England. According to the London Christian World nobody went to hear it last year, and the vicar took the sermon home unpreached. The trustees refused thereon to pay him the half guinea. This year the sermon was duly preached, but the trustees still held back the half guinea, professing fear lest, the vicar himself being a trustee, the payment might be illegal. The vicar sued for a guinea, both for last year's sermon and this, in the King's Lynn County Court, and the judge ordered the money to be jaid. He only allowed half a guinea costs, however, on the ground that the vicar ought to have preached last year, whether there was anybody to hear the sermon or not.
